UPPER LEVEL

+ “SPARK OF CONVICTION” HUMAN RIGHTS GALLERY
+ END OF “ROLLS DOWN LIKE WATER”

“Spark of Conviction” tells the stories of courageous human rights defenders and the struggle for rights and freedom around the world today. This floor also contains “Requiem,” the last part of the U.S. Civil Rights gallery and the Shared Accomplishments rotunda—videos of activists throughout history. The mezzanine often hosts temporary exhibits.

The Paula Scher mural in the main lobby features protest posters from across the globe.

LOWER LEVEL

+ “VOICE TO THE VOICELESS” MOREHOUSE COLLEGE MARTIN LUTHER KING, JR. COLLECTION
+ “FRAGMENTS”
+ GLENN ROOMS (EVENT SPACE)

The Center is one of the only museums that continuously exhibits the papers and artifacts of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. “Voice to the Voiceless” frequently rotates these papers and artifacts. “Fragments” features Dr. King’s handwriting on metal panels from his various works.
